PRESENTING VOLUME X OF

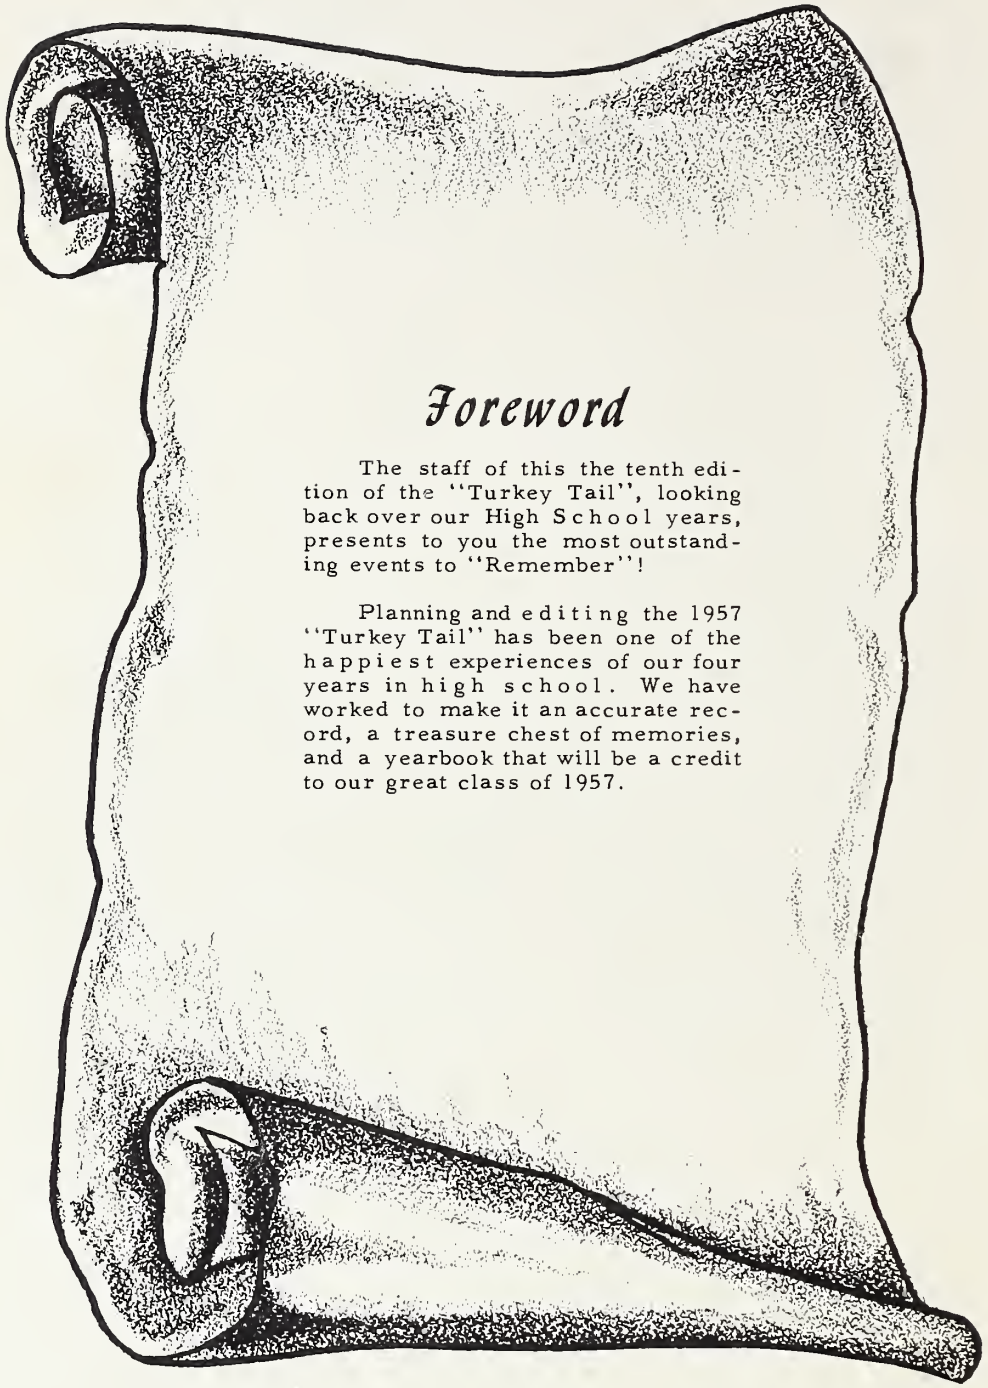
THE TURKEY TAIL



Foreword

The staff of this the tenth edition of the "Turkey Tail", looking back over our High School years, presents to you the most outstanding events to "Remember"!

Planning and editing the 1957 "Turkey Tail" has been one of the happiest experiences of our four years in high school. We have worked to make it an accurate record, a treasure chest of memories, and a yearbook that will be a credit to our great class of 1957.

In Memoriam

MRS. SADIE S. MULL

The Senior Class of Glen Alpine High School deeply mourned the passing of our beloved friend, Mrs. Sadie S. Mull. Beginning with our first year in school she served as room representative for our class and continued in this service until her death on October 13, 1956.

Her homegoing grieved us deeply, and as students we shall ever remember and admire her for her friendly disposition, her interest in students and school activities and for the active part she played in community and church affairs.

"As she lived . . . . she will be remembered."

Dedication

To Mr. Russell M. Gaylord . . . . in appreciation of his understanding of youth . . . . for his encouragement and zealous participation in student activities . . . . for his eagerness to give of time and energy to improve the landscape of our campus, we, the seniors of 1956-57, dedicate this the tenth edition of the "Turkey Tail."

For the past seven years he has taken an interest in each pupil and his personal welfare. By his enduring patience and his politeness, he has set an example for all the students of Glen Alpine High School. For all this we can but say, "Thank you, Mr. Gaylord"!

Last Will And Testament

We, the Senior Class of Glen Alpine High School, being of sound mind and clear understanding, do make this, our last will and testament.

Article I

We leave and bequeath to our Alma Mater the echo of our laughter in the halls, our finger prints in the great classics, and, most of all, our love and fond memories.

To the faculty we leave all our old notebooks, crammed full of knowledge--may they inspire the seniors of next year.

Article II

To the Juniors we leave our chapel seats and all the old chewing gum under them.

To the Sophomores we bequeath our place on the athletic teams. May they carry the colors high.

To the Freshmen we leave our dignity, poise, charm, brilliancy and rules of fair play.

Article III

To those who shall follow us we do humbly bequeath these our talents and endowments:

I, Leola Cooper, leave my quietness to Shirley Sisk.
I, Ralph Dellinger, leave my fast truck to David Puett.
I, Wanda Lowdermilk, leave my position as the only girl in the Physics Class to anyone that can obtain it.
I, J. C. Fox, leave my likeness for blondes to Royce Byrd.
We, Edith Cowan and Gena Williams, leave our "giggles" to Priscilla Patton and Norma Reep.
I, Richard Mangum, bequeath my friendly smile to Robert Hilliard.
I, Loretta Lane, leave my driving ability to Lucille Queen.
I, Larry Causby, will my job in White's Store to "Slick" Ollis.
I, Dorothy Williamson, leave my ability to drive around a carload of boys to Libby Giles.
I, Eddie Hardin, leave my Chevrolet to Jimmy Hardin.
I, Nancy Haskins, leave all my good times in school to Frances Fox.
We, Charlie Henline and Harold Hall, leave our patrolman friends to Ralph Morrison and Billy Brittain.
I, Jackie Morris, leave my title as "Most Athletic" to Dottee Giles.
I, James Taylor, leave my efforts to pull a good joke to Jim Hemphill.
I, Nancy Pitts, leave my talkative ways to Andrea Bennett.
I, Carrol Epley, leave my artistic ability to Barbara Elder.
I, Ann Mayfield, leave my job on the school paper to Frances Scott.
I, Wayne Cook, leave my easily riled-up temper to Kenny Anderson.
I, Gladys Morgan, bequeath my bewitching dimples to Linda Heffner.
I, David Brown, leave my bus to Donnie-Bell Williams.
I, Patsy Whisenant, leave my cuteness to Sue Parks.
I, Paul Gibbs, leave my ability to get Mrs. Young off the subject in class to Wayne Kiser.
I, Janice Anderson, leave my interest in birdlore, especially "Hawks", to Carolyn Jean Allen.
I, Tony Adams, leave my little car to Jim Jernigan.
I, Betty Sue Williams, bequeath my shorthand ability to Catherine Jordan.
I, Ralph Hawkins, leave my ability in all sports to Tommy Biggerstaff.
I, Margaret Beach, leave my interest in Salem to Frances Arrowood.
I, Jerry Butler, leave my blue and white car to Ronnie Fisher.
I, Betty Dale, leave my art of writing gossip for the school paper to Mary Ellen Bailey.
I, Ronald Ramsey, leave my quiet ways to Donald Morgan. He needs them.
I, Shirley Stevens, leave all my blushes to Sarah Bennett.
I, Wayne Watson, leave my pretty, dark hair to Mitchell Morris.
I, Virginia Price, leave my bookkeeping art to Hester Buff.
I, Kenneth Bivens, leave my appreciation of a good joke to Jerry Hastings.
I, Mary Ellen Houk, leave my brains to Mary White.
I, Bob Courtney, leave my secret notebook of girls' telephone numbers to Lee Stillwell.
I, Joanne Smith, leave my studiousness to Doris Anne Berry.
I, David McKinney, leave my friendly attitude to Richard Hemphill.
I, Judy Jarrette, leave my timidness to Mindora Leonard.
I, Maynard Brown, leave my position as teacher's pet to Jimmy Queen.
I, Grace McGalliard, leave my high grades to anyone that needs them.
I, J. E. Mull, leave to Bob Butler my broken bones.
I, Francis Richardson, leave my mischievous grin to A. J. Allen.
I, Maxine Epley, leave my typing ability to Onadine Williams.
And in closing, I, Michael Curtis, leave all my good excuses to Jerry Roper.

Signed and sealed, this, the last will and testament of the Senior Class of Glen Alpine High School--December Nineteenth, one thousand nine hundred and fifty-six.

Class Prophecy

It's a beautiful spring Saturday in the year 1967. The time is about 10 A. M. and Butler and his better half are sitting on their front porch in a small college town where he is the football coach. The postman is slowly making his way up the street; he comes up the Butlers' walk and hands Butler a letter. The postmark on the envelope is "Glen Alpine, N. C." Butler opens the envelope and finds an invitation to a class reunion, which stirs up many memories and questions in his mind. He determines at once to return to G. A. to see what time has done to his old classmates.

Two weeks later Mr. and Mrs. Butler are in Glen Alpine and so are 46 other members of the class of '57. Time has tried and proven each member--the results are very gratifying, since we had always felt that we could accomplish anything we undertook. Listen attentively while our beloved Mrs. Young once more calls the roll--will each one answer by giving a short account of himself and his accomplishments.

Tony Adams is now living in Columbia, S. C., and is assistant pastor of the First Methodist Church there. Janice Anderson is living on Pea Ridge in Glen Alpine, N. C., where she is owner of the Doberman-Pinscher Kennels. (Several of her dogs have won blue ribbons.) Margaret Beach lives in Carbon City, where she keeps house for a husband and four children. Kenneth Bivens is manager of Bivens Drive-In on Highway 70 (Class, it's the old hang-out, "Gene's"). David Brown, now living in Charlotte, N. C., is working for a transfer company.

Maynard Brown is living in Morganton, where he is doing an internship in psychiatry at the State Hospital. Wayne Cook has become manager of "Fisherman's Haven", a club house on Lake James. Leola Cooper lives in Marion, N. C., where she is principal of "Tweet-tweet School"--a school where parakeets are taught to talk. Larry Causby, living in Washington, D. C., is working in the office of the Secretary of Agriculture. Edith Cowan is private secretary to the president of Henredon Furniture Company. Bob Courtney has become the executive vice-president of Crown Service Stations, the office of which is located in Hickory, N. C. Mike Curtis is head of Duke Power Company.

Betty Dale, now living in Raleigh, N. C., has become involved in politics. Ralph Dellinger lives in a bachelor's apartment near the Morganton depot, close to his work at Breeden's Poultry Co. Carrol Epley, state highway patrolman, lives in Statesville, N. C. (The results of seeing Chandler's daughter, huh Carrol?) Maxine Epley is teaching Nursing Arts at Fletcher Sanatarium in Fletcher, N. C. J. C. Fox, living in Nashville, Tenn., is advertising for Silkey Straight on "Randy's". Paul Harvey Gibbs resides in New York and is modeling Manhattan shirts for Esquire.

Harold Hall, who now lives in Miami, Florida, has been doing prosperous business at the Daytona Beach Speedway. Eddie Hardin is the manager of a new Dixie-Home Store in Drexel. (A regular career boy.) Nancy Haskins, who is sharing an apartment with Betty Dale in Raleigh, is enjoying being a Democrat party-boss. Ralph Hawkins, who lives in Washington, D. C., is the star halfback for the Redskins. Charlie Henline is traveling as the wrestler, Charlie Chicken.

Mary Ellen Houk is home economics teacher at our ole Alma Mater. Judy Jarrette, living in "Punkin' Center", is selling peroxide in a Morganton drug store. Loretta Lane, residing in New York, assists Fred Waring and the Pennsylvanians. Wanda Lowdermilk lives in Charlotte and sings on the Arthur Smith Show. Richard Mangum, now living in Asheville, drives for the Greyhound Bus Company.

Ann Mayfield, who is still living in Glen Alpine, is the dietician of the school cafeteria. Grace McGalliard designs costumes for the new production of "Macbeth" in Hollywood. David McKinney, now living in New York, is leading tenor of the Metropolitan Opera. Gladys Morgan, now living in Durham, is working as a director of religious education in the First Baptist Church there. Jackie Morris is waitress at Bivens Drive-In Diner. J. E. Mull, an attorney at law with offices located in Atlanta, Georgia, is running for State Representative. Nancy Pitts is a window-decorator for Rose's 5-10 and 25 Cent Stores in Marion, N. C. Virginia Price shares an apartment with Wanda Lowdermilk in Charlotte and is giving her competition by singing on the Fred Kirby Show. Ronald Ramsey, who lives in Milwaukee, is working in Lilley Laboratories. (Class, he has made outstanding discoveries in new drugs.)

Francis Richardson, now living in Hickory, is selling cars for the Hudson Company. Joanne Smith lives in Lenoir and sells perfume in Belk's. Shirley Stevens is living in Glen Alpine and enjoys being a housewife. James Taylor, truly a "chip off the old block", is constable of Silver Creek Township. (Don't worry class, he's promised to tear up our speeding tickets.) Wayne Watson is a comedian on WMS-TV. Patsy Whisenant works out of Charlotte as an Eastern Airline Hostess. Gena Williams is an Esquire calendar girl. Dorothy Williamson, who is sharing a penthouse in N. Y. with Loretta, is doing well as a fashion model. Betty Sue Williams drag races at Daytona Beach, Florida, and is the proud owner of many trophies.

So ends the roll call in 1967--all are present and it really sounds like the old class of '57, for everyone is talking and no one seems to be listening.
